whereas the fortress is the pagoda, whereas the river is blood, whereas men and women are diamonds
I ask what is there where imagelessness prevails?

whereas some cosmoses are being transformed, whereas some are being transfigured, whereas some metamorphosis continues I ask how is this possible where there is no imagination?

I sidetrack near Kendal Cache

I note the conglomeration

Along glacier benches to bedrock across rivers to bedrock to bedrock under ridges, under

WOODNOTES

for Luis and Jon

*Seek to realize the self—
the way, the poets say, is difficult.*

We are situated in a cedar cabin built on stilts over the water in a cove
a mile across Moser Lake from Deep Bay, our mail drop, Deep Bay 99901.
Mail arrives weekly from Ketchikan,
25 miles by plane weather permitting.
Mid-winter—there is four feet of snow.

Elizabeth and baby Theo and I, helped by friends, take to the woods
after reading Bradford Angier's
How to Live in the Woods on $10/Week.
With my last paycheck, income tax return and promise of employment insurance we should make out—hoping that by discriminating use of ecological resources most of our material needs can be met—

*Selfless means to a selfless end,
as Ghandi put it.*

POLOOT

Alaska, who lives there?
Caribou, wolves and bear.

This grizzly airs a grudge
that everyone fears to judge.

A refinery don't smell
like Chanel— more like hell.

THE BEAST

Old Valdez.
275 sq. miles. Second oldest white settlement in Alaska.
Captain Cook 1778
1794 Bligh Island
Spaniards 1798.

1800s whaling. Copper mined.
Route to the gold fields.
Blue fox farming in the 1920s.

LOST IN TONGASS WOODS

Which way? got turned around drizzle, muskeg and devil's club mountains on four sides

Let's see
I came over that rise knelt and backed up turned and sat down
adjusted my gear
got up and...

Fear I'm in Death's maw
when I hear a shout
and see the beam of a torch—
Dale at the trail head with a bag of trailmix

I'm gobbling it up
when he tells me he added candle butts
in case we need to start a fire
but they're gone

All one taste

So around this complex
our routine flows—all activities merge in the pursuit, which deepens here in Deep Bay.

Schedule remains firm.
Implementation of spiritual discipline,
Karma Yoga—wood and water
wood and water, wood and water.
Would you believe, wood and water?

Elemental—the meaning is subtle,
but we're only scratching the surface.
We have stored away necessary supplies, several cords of wood cut and split and stacked.
Now we improvise.

Awoke to a 14 foot tide, high enough to float a forty-footer off an abandoned logging donkey.
Tied on and rowed it to shore,
breaking a rib in the dinghy near the stern.
Tied up and came in for coffee.

Sometimes, I'm the ocean,
man-boat-ocean.

How hard can the wind blow?
Whips us from the east today—
whitecaps in the cove, cedar bending, gulls motionless in the gale.
February is a boisterous month.

Can we use up our desires?
Not that we don't have sense cravings.
Food is Number One God here.
And Shelter.
And the twin god, a good pair of Boots.

Made a mixture of vinegar, water,
cloves, onion, garlic, salt, mustard,
sugar, ginger for sauerbraten.
Put this mix and a venison roast
in a stoneware crock to marinate.

By the way, I'm told Ramakrishna uses the simile of the ocean,
the ocean of sat-chit-ananda
the ocean of existence, consciousness, bliss—dissolve myself like a salt-doll in this ocean.

Lu Garcia writes from Berkeley,
"Things spin as they always spin."

We haven't seen a soul on the water for days—grooving on the isolation.

By kerosene lamp I read Lone Wolf Smith's letters to the Daily News,
always a revelation—

*Not one new goat trail here.
What for our Poor People and trollers more rotten Pinks from Creeks and let Coho go?
Where o where is Gov. Hinkels Better or Bitter way?*

Not sure I want improvements.

Sit and watch the deer on the beach,
watch them turn their heads, twitch their ears suspiciously.

A little bird settles on a branch,
listen to it sing.

1968

Equisetum arvense

“field horsetail”

used by Quinault to regulate menstrual flow.

While reading this aloud, Elizabeth starts her period.

We have no ailments in the woods, except when we go to town, we catch the Ketchikan crud.

A whirly-twirly, sunny day.
Here it rains 200 inches a year.
10% chance of rain means 10 inches of rain.
Made ice cream and had mincemeat pie à la mode.

Watched a sea otter dive for crab.
The sky Gualoises blue, the water
a shade of jade and now smooth.
Buds and bugs and migrating fowl signal
Spring—
I feel like pulling the doors from the jambs, but I’m afraid of the ceiling falling down from a ton of newspaper & mattress insulation.

Cut and split another cord of wood.
Supper of red snapper filets, scalloped spuds, and sponge cake w/berry sauce.

Jon Springer, at this time, finds it “fetid in the Ukrainian ghetto of 6th St.

How did I get from selling the Berkeley Barb
on Telegraph Avenue to this cabin?
The old personality breaks down, and the world becomes pure—like Blake saw,
as it is in infinity.

It is curious how some moves take years to come about, but then done with full support of mind & body
they move forward.

The wind gathers strength.
As weather delays delivery of oil,
as the Coleman stove is in parts,
we cook over a makeshift grate
in the Yukon oil drum heater.
Elizabeth achieves bliss of sourdough chocolate cake, cerealmate bread, venison stroganoff, and fern fronds.

Living in the woods is a fruitcake idea.
Can others be influenced by seeing how it’s done?—expanding circle—friends, town, state, country, galaxy, cosmos returns me back to myself.

Snowflakes falling outside and in my mind.
The temperature, 40 degrees.
Nothing sticks.

I roam the woods.
Tongass National Forest.
Sitka Black Tail Deer. Beaver. Squirrel.
A few bears.
Much spirit life.

While dark, I take to the woods.
When dawn cracks, I'm waiting.
I'm a good shot, felling my game with a single round from a 30.30.
Death, sorrow, sort of unreal,
this tug of life and death.

Repression, exploitation—
leaving the city to avoid the establishment, and, in turn, I become the Man.
Good weather, one clear day in thirty in this rain forest—ego hunting—lots of weird animals in the mind—the mind itself a crazy monkey.

Somewhere, the Governor of Someplace makes money in real estate.
Dr. Leary attends Altamont, says
it's a lesson to be learned.
Theo and I float in our boat, while far away
Neil Armstrong takes his giant step.

Hunt and fish, wood and water.
Today, eight crabs in the trap.
Cut and stacked cedar blocks,
using the tide to move them to shore.
I came indoors to paint the cabinets
until Theo knocked over the paint can.
Put him down for a nap and read
a few chapters of Thomas Á Kempis.

Field studies:

Periculum aquillium
a perennial fern, local species “hog braken” substitute for asparagus.
Theo gets up early to pick the fronds.

Tiarella trifoliata Quileut “gwaqwlacyu'l”
three leaves (qwal'l=3)
Chew for coughs.
